Southbound by The Allman Brothers - Key of C 12-bar Blues

[Guitar Intro with breaks]

Bb B|C | Bb B|C |C

Verse 1

C Well I'm southbound, lord I'm comin home to you F C Well I'm southbound, babe, lord I'm comin home to you G F C I got that old lonesome feelin that's sometimes called the blues C Well I been workin every night, oh travelin every day F C Oh I been workin every night, oh traveling every day G F C Oh you can tell your other man, sweet daddy's on the way

Oh...you better believe...

Chorus 1 (with chromatic piano run) C F Well I'm southbound C Whoa I'm southbound babe G F C Bb B C Oh you can tell your other man, sweet daddy's on his way <break>

[Guitar break similar to Intro]

[Guitar solo]

Verse 2

C Got your hands full now baby, oh as soon as I hit that door F C You got your hands full now woman, just as soon as I hit that door G F C Well I'm gonna make it on up to you for all the things you should have had before

Chorus 2 (with chromatic piano run)

C Lord, I'm southbound, Oh I'm southbound babe F C Ohhhhhhh I'm goin southbound yeah yeah G F C Well I'm gonna make it on up to you for all the things you should have had before

[Piano solo]

[Guitar solo]

[End]

End
G				F				C <0	guitar N	bass w	alk dowr	n> C (st	.op)	C >	>>>>
1	2	3	4	1	2	3	4	1 2	3 2 2	3 3 2	valk dowr 2 3 4 2	3 1 2	3 2 2	з З	4
											ххх
-				-				0	0	0	0	o	0	0
								11				12			